From 20 January, the COAC's El Vallès branch office hosts the exhibition 'To the Catalan Masters', comprising eight lithographs by Antoni Tàpies on Guarro paper, published by Sala Gaspar in 1974.

It is a tribute to all the key figures of Catalan culture whom Tàpies supported during the years of Franco's dictatorship. It encompasses, by means of a great economy of elements, the different facets of knowledge. Science and art go hand-in-hand in a chromatic setting that brings us closer to the geographical context of Catalonia.

The show can be visited up until 10 March 2016.

The team of graphic designers Lo Siento, comprising Borja Martínez and Gerard Miró, is taking part in the series of exhibitions 'La Cova. About Technique', with the show 'Disseny a foc lent' (Design on a simmering heat), in which they consider their own particular vision of technique. The show can be visited at the Girona branch office from 4 December 2015 to 14 February 2016.

Graphic design is, traditionally, a visual communication tool. We are accustomed to perceiving graphic information using our sense of sight. Returning to traditional techniques prior to the digital age, using the third dimension and a physical approach to graphic solutions, has enabled us to perceive graphic design using other senses, redefining the relationship between graphic design and the material. Graphics that you can see, touch, drink or eat.

The exhibition series 'La Cova. About Technique', managed by the Girona branch's Department of Culture since October 2014, aims to reveal alternative ways of imagining, planning, composing, assembling, mixing, constructing, executing and post-producing a project.

The exhibition of the 9th ALEJANDRO DE LA SOTA BIENNIAL, which was available to visit at the COAC's Tarragona branch office up to mid-August 2015, is beginning a tour of various towns and cities of the El Camp de Tarragona region.

From 15 September until 15 November 2015, the exhibition will be at the Escola d'Art i Disseny de la Diputació, in Reus.

From 16 November 2015 until 12 January 2016, it will move to the lobby of the Reus School of Architecture (Rovira i Virgili University, Reus).

From 15 January to 26 February 2016 it will be seen at Falset Castle (Pl. de la Quartera, 1, Falset).

From 3 March to 1 April it will move to the Pati de Sant Roc de l'Institut d'Estudis Vallencs (Jaume Huguet Street, 1, Valls).

The exhibition features samples of the projects submitted for this contest and aims to highlight the most significant work constructed during the two-year period 2013-2014 throughout a region that includes the counties of L'Alt Camp, El Baix Camp, El Baix Penedès, La Conca de Barberà, El Priorat and El Tarragonès.

This year, of the 44 projects submitted for the contest, the jury decided to select 21, of which 12 have gone to the next stage as finalists. Finally, the jury decided to declare 5 winning projects, with one of them being presented with the Alejandro de la Sota Award.

This exhibition, conceived as an open system with the ability to adjust to a variety of sizes and adapt to different spaces, shows six audiovisual presentations corresponding to each of the Biennial's categories.

In 1991, a photographers' association in Reus published a collection of 10 photographs of Mr Manuel Cuadrada i Gisbert (1896-1957) as a tribute to this pioneer of the art of photography, who opened up possibilities at a time when practising the art of light was, quite simply, an adventure.

These images, taken between 1924 and 1949, show different perspectives of the Monastery of Poblet and provide a historical testimony and record of the interventions carried out on the building during the following years. They are graphic documents from the COAC's Documentation Centre that this exhibition will bring to light and which can be seen from 16 October 2015 to 4 March 2016 at the Barhaus Room.

The show is completed by the plans designed by the architect Francesc Monravà Soler for restoring the monastery.
