Inaugural conference of the exhibition 'Miradas: El agua y la mar', by the exhibition's photographer, Pep Escoda.

The exhibition, the first of the LOOKS Cycle at the Tarragona headquarters, dedicated this year to WATER, includes twenty images by photographer Pep Escoda and offers a look at this natural element, as the title indicates, water and the sea.

Pep Escoda, Tarragona (1958), has worked as a professional photographer since 1990 and, although he specialized in interior design and architecture photography, he has reached other photographic specialties throughout his career. He has won 21 Lux awards in various categories, portrait, landscape, architecture or personal project.

He has published his photographs in more than 150 books, by publishers such as Taschen, Daab, Teneues or Harper design New York, New York Times, Forbes Magazine and ICON Magazine, among others.

He has been part of many individual and group exhibitions, such as the Tagomago gallery in Barcelona and Paris. Other exhibitions worth highlighting are Sincerely yours, at the Valid Foto gallery in Barcelona, ??Passion and Melody of Mediterranean at the Center for Contemporary Art in Saint Petersburg and Portraits at Shed Two on the Tarragona coast pier.

Looks

The LOOKS exhibition cycle is a cultural initiative that weaves the entire territory in a collaborative way, highlighting the local heritage through the observation of the four elements of nature: water, earth, fire and air.

Each of the elements will be the subject of an annual exhibition, completing the series in four years and increasing the legacy of the historical archive of the College of Architects with the donation of photographic records that will build the exhibitions.

In this way, from a local perspective, we will share and debate global commitments.

Conferencia inaugural de la exposición 'Miradas: El agua y la mar', por parte del fotógrafo de la muestra, de Pep Escoda.

La muestra, la primera del Ciclo MIRADAS en la sede de Tarragona, dedicado este año al AGUA, integra una veintena de imágenes del fotógrafo Pep Escoda y ofrece una mirada de este elemento natural, tal como el título indica, el agua y la mar.

Pep Escoda, Tarragona (1958), trabaja como fotógrafo profesional desde 1990 y, a pesar de que se especializó en fotografía de interiorismo y arquitectura, ha alcanzado a lo largo de su carrera otras especialidades fotográficas. Ha ganado 21 premios Lux en varias categorías, retrato, paisaje, arquitectura o proyecto personal.

Ha publicado sus fotografías en más de 150 libros, por editoriales como Taschen, Daab, Teneues o Harper design New York, New York Times, Forbes Magazine y ICON Magazine, entre otros.

Ha formado parte de muchas exposiciones individuales y colectivas, como son galería Tagomago de Barcelona y París. Otras exposiciones a destacar son Sincerely yours, a la galería Valid Foto de Barcelona, Passion and Melody of Mediterranean en el Centro de Arte Contemporáneo de San Petersburgo y Retratos en el Tinglado dos del muelle de costa de Tarragona.

Miradas

El ciclo de exposiciones MIRADAS es una iniciativa cultural que teje todo el territorio de una forma colaborativa, poniendo de manifiesto el patrimonio local a través de la observación de los cuatro elementos de la natura: el agua, la tierra, el fuego y el aire.

Cada uno del elementos será motivo de una muestra anual, completando la serie en cuatro años y aumentando el legado del archivo histórico del Colegio de Arquitectos con la donación de los registros fotográficos que construirán las exposiciones.

De este modo, desde una mirada local, pondremos en común y debate compromisos de cariz global.

Exposiciones Miradas: Agua

El agua como modeladora del territorio, de Mariano Cebolla (Tortosa, 28.09 ? 31.12)
Industrias fluviales. EL agua como energía, de Judith Casas (Manresa, 1.12 ? 16.12; Vic, 9.01 ? 26.01)
El agua i la mar, de Pep Escoda (Tarragona, 22.01 ? 15.03)
La sequía - carencia de agua. Fotos aéreas, de Carles Rabada (Lleida, 1.02 - 1.03)
Micropaisajes de las aguas gerundenses, de Carles Sànchez (Girona, a partir del 22.02)
